Lors de la réunion tenue le lundi 9 décembre 2024 au siège de l'ICESCO à Rabat, Dr. AlMalik a réaffirmé l'engagement de l'ICESCO à promouvoir l'ouverture et le développement des relations de coopération avec tous, notant que les objectifs de La Fondation recoupent la vision et les orientations stratégiques de l'Organisation, dans la mesure où ils croient tous deux fermement à l'importance de la paix et à la nécessité d'ancrer ses principes dans l'éducation, la culture et la science.

Il a également déclaré que l'ICESCO met en œuvre un certain nombre d'initiatives et de programmes de consolidation de la paix, notamment le programme de formation au leadership pour la paix et la sécurité (LTIPS) et l'initiative Paix 360°.

For his part, Dr. Capasso commended Icesco's roles and efforts within its areas of competence, reiterating his appreciation of Dr. AlMalik's leadership style which has given impetus to the Organization's work and achievements over the past five years. He stated that Dr. AlMalik's endeavors prompted the Foundation to present him with its Mediterranean Award Medal of Honour for 2024, in a large ceremony held at the Foundation's headquarters in Naples, Italy. He further explained that the Mediterranean Award Medal of Honour is an annual award presented to kings, heads of states, governments, intellectuals and academics who had significant contributions to anchoring the values of coexistence and peace across the globe.

At the close of the meeting, the Organization agreed to examine a number of initiatives and programs proposed by the Foundation to assess the prospects of co-organization.
